

UNWE Is A Partner of The International Financial Forum Innovations

The Rector of UNWE Prof. D.Sc.(Econ.) Statty Stattev greeted the participants in the 4th International Financial Forum Innovations organized by the Bulgarian Bank of the Year Association. In the present year the eldest Bulgarian university is a partner of the prestigious meeting of bankers and financiers.

Prof. Stattev emphasized on the traditionally good relations between the university and the banking and financial spheres for which the educational institution prepares successful professionals (in the picture below).

The Rector has suggested the UNWE to host the following edition of the expert meeting and according to him it could be devoted to the cyber security in the banking.
