

Bonsist Sports Complex

In 1976 the academic studies in Physical Education and Sport have turned into a youth building brigade. For one academic year it has been built Bonsist Sports Complex.

The Complex was opened in 1977 in order to be carried out The Summer Universiade in Sofia.

In 2009 under the managing of Borislav Borissov, Rector of UNWE the Sports Complex was completely renovated and modernized and it turned into the most modern university sports facility in Bulgaria.

The Complex has sports halls for playing basketball, volleyball, football, fitness, tennis, table tennis, aerobics, callanetics. At the Complex there are also cabinets for the lecturers in separate kinds of sports.