

Martin Petkov

Representative of the Student Council

Martin Petkov is a Ph.D. student at the Department of International Economic Relations and Business and a representative of the Student Council in the Trustees Council of the University of National and World Economy.

In 2015, Martin was elected for a member of the Academic Council of UNWE, and in the term 2017-2019, he became Secretary-General of the Student Council and a member of the Committee on Awards and Grants of UNWE. During this term, the Student Organization has been very successful in implementing its policies to protect the rights and interests of students. Martin is a graduate of the national program of the Bulgarian School of Politics "Dimitar Panitza", created for young community leaders who work in priority strategic areas such as education, health, social policy, civic participation, and more.

In 2018, he participated in the World Forum on Democracy as part of the Bulgarian delegation, held in Strasbourg, France.

In his career, Martin is a financial advisor. He holds a number of positions in leading financial institutions in Bulgaria. Currently, he is a personal finance expert in the "Karoll" financial group.

In the field of financial services, Martin specializes in Investment Management at the University of Geneva, Switzerland, and successfully defends additional education programs at Duke University in North Carolina, USA, and the global company PWC.

From September 2020 to September 2021, Martin was elected for EU Career Ambassador. He is the first representative of the University of National and World Economy in this position.