- Conducting contest for PhD students: The purpose of the operation is to administer the process of conducting a contest for PhD students, ranking the participants in the contest, enrolling the PhD student in regular or part-time form, conducting the training process, passing exams, etc.

Conclusion of the impact assessment of the operation: Based on the above impact assessment, the personal data protection officer considers that the operation "Conducting contest for PhD students" is acceptable for performance and provides sufficient guarantees for the protection of the rights and legal interests of data subjects in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR).

Art. 11. (1) The personal data is collected by the University from the persons to whom they relate.

(2) The University does not perform automated decision-making with data.

(3) The University does not collect and process data for persons under the age of 14.

What specific visual personal data does the University store

Art. 12. (1) The data is expressed in an image of the natural persons (visual or audiovisual image of the natural persons) - students, teachers, employees and other guests and visitors of the University. Personal data for an image of a natural person is stored for a period of 2 months on the grounds of Art. 56, para. 4 of the Bulgarian Law on Private Security Activities and until the legitimate interest of the University ceases in the cases of control over the fulfillment of the duties of employees and teachers in their labor relations with the University and labor discipline.

(2) The above-mentioned personal data is processed by the "Security Organization" sector, and the processing operation represents a complete administration of the image data of natural persons (video recordings) from the means of video surveillance, their recording, preservation and use for the needs and purposes of the University.

(3) The personal data for all persons who are captured by the means of video surveillance on the territory of the University is processed on the grounds of the legitimate interest of the University and Art. 56, para. 4 of the Law on private security activities, and is processed for the purposes of ensuring the security of students, teachers, employees and visitors of the University, as well as for the purposes of monitoring the performance of the work duties of employees and teachers, including the establishment of violations and the imposition of disciplinary sanctions. - Art. 6, paragraph 1, letter "is" from GDPR.

(4) When providing samples of image data of natural persons, all necessary measures (as far as possible and as far as the software allows) are provided to delete the data of the persons who are not subject to verification by the Controller.

(5) Upon a duly submitted written request for the provision of data from extracts from records, the same shall be provided after an express order of the Rector of the University.

Terms of storage of your personal data

Art. 13. (1) The University stores your personal data as a student candidate for the entire duration of the candidate student campaign for which you signed up and for a period of up to 5 years after its completion, after which the University takes the necessary care to delete and destroy all your data without undue delay or to anonymize them (i.e. reduce them to a form that does not reveal your identity) and delete your profile in the electronic system.

(2) The University stores your personal data, which you provided when registering as a newly enrolled student, for the entire duration of your studies. After the student's graduation, the data is archived and stored indefinitely for the purposes of protecting the University's legitimate interests.

(3) The University stores your personal data, which you provided when enrolling as a PhD candidate and enrolled PhD student, for the entire duration of the studies and until the acquisition of the relevant PhD degree. After the expiration of this period, the data is archived and stored indefinitely for the purpose of protecting the legitimate interests of the University.

(4) The University notifies you in the event that the data storage period needs to be extended in order to fulfill a legal obligation or in view of legitimate interests of the University or otherwise.

Transmission of your personal data for processing

Art. 14. (1) The University is allowed on its own discretion to transmit all or part of your personal data to processor for performing the purposes of processing, which you have agreed in compliance with the requirements of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR).

(2) The University informs you in case of intention to transmit all or part of your personal data to third countries or international organizations.

Your rights in the process for collection and storage of your personal data

Withdrawal of consent to the processing of your personal data

Art. 15. (1) If you do not wish the University to continue to process all or part of your personal data, which are processed on the ground of given consent, for specified or all processing purposes, you can, at any time, withdraw your consent for processing by sending a request, incorporated in free text, or to fill the form in Appendix No 1, sent by email or on paper.

(2) The University is allowed to ask you to prove your identity and the identity with the person, for whom the data is regarding, by presenting an Identity Card on site.

(3) The withdraw of the consent does not affect the examination of the processing of the personal data, provided by you until the moment of the withdraw of the consent.

(4) You can at any time withdraw your consent for processing your personal data for the purposes of direct marketing.

(5) The University is allowed to continue to process all or part of your personal data, if there is a legal obligation for the processing or for the purposes of protection of the University's legal interests.

Right of access

Art. 16. (1) You have right to request and receive confirmation from the University if there is a processing of personal data, related to you.

(2) The University is allowed to request you to prove your identity and the identity with the person, for whom the data is concerning, by presenting Identity Card on site.

(3) You have right to gain access to the data, related to you, as well as to the information, regarding collecting, processing and storage of your personal data.

(4) The University provides you, if there is a request from you, a copy of the processed personal data, related to you, in electronic or other appropriate form.

(5) Provision of data access is free, but the University keeps his right to determine administrative fee, in case of repeatability or excessiveness of the requests.

Right to rectification or completion

Art. 17. (1) You have right to request from the controller to:

- to correct the inaccurate personal data, concerning you;
- to complete incomplete personal data, concerning you.

(2) The University is allowed to request you to prove your identity and the identity with the person, for whom the data is concerning by presenting an Identity Card on site.

Right to erasure ("to be forgotten")

Art. 18. (1) You have the right to request the University to delete part or all of your personal data, and the University has the obligation to delete them without undue delay, when any of the following grounds are present:

- the personal data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;

- You object to the processing of your personal data and there are no overriding legal grounds for the processing;
- personal data were processed illegally;
- personal data must be deleted in order to comply with a legal obligation under EU law or the law of a Member State that applies to the University;
- the personal data were collected in connection with the provision of information society services.

(2) The University is not obliged to delete personal data if it stores and processes it:

- For exercising the right of freedom of speech and the right of information;
- For compliance with legal obligation, which requires processing, determined in European Union Law or the law of Republic of Bulgaria, which obligation is in force against the Controller or for performance of a task in public interest or for performance of official powers, provided to the Controller;
- In public interest, related to the public health;

- For the purposes of archiving in public interest, for scientific or historic researches or for statistics purposes;
- For establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

(3) In the event of exercising your right to be forgotten, the University will delete all your data, except for your unique social security number, for reporting purposes.

(4) In order to exercise your right to be forgotten, it is necessary to send a request in free text or fill out a form according to Appendix No. 2 by e-mail or on paper, and identify yourself with an identity document on the spot.

Art. 19. (1) You have right to request the Controller to restrict the processing of the personal data, concerning you, when:

- The accuracy of the personal data is contested by you, for a period, which allows the Controller to check the accuracy of the data;
- The processing is unlawful, but you oppose the erasure of personal data, and request only for the restriction of their usage;
- The Controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but you require them for establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- You objected to the processing pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the Controller override your legal interests.

(2) The Controller is allowed to ask you to prove your identity and the identity with the person, for whom the data is regarding, by presenting on site- an Identity Card.

(3) The Controller is allowed to continue the processing of your personal data, if there is a necessity for establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, defence of another natural person or in accordance with important requirements of public interests.

Right to limitation

Art. 20. You have the right to request the University to limit the processing of your data when:

- dispute the accuracy of the personal data, for a period that allows the University to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- the processing is illegal, but you do not want the personal data to be deleted, but only to have its use restricted;
- The University no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of processing, but you require them to establish, exercise or defend your legal claims;
- You have objected to the processing pending verification of whether the University's legal grounds take precedence over your interests.

Right of portability

Art. 21. (1) If you have consented to the processing of your personal data or the processing is necessary for the performance of the contract with the University, or if your data is processed in an automated manner, you may, after identifying yourself to the University:

- to ask the University to provide you with your personal data in a readable format and to transfer them to another Controller;
- request the University to directly transfer your personal data to an Controller specified by you, when this is technically feasible.

(2) You can exercise your right to portability by sending a request in free text or a completed form according to Appendix No. 3 by email or on paper.

Right to receive information

Art. 22. You have the right to require from the Controller to inform you about all recipients, to whom your personal data, for which has been required rectification, erasure or restriction of processing, have been disclosed. The Controller is allowed to refuse to provide this information if this is impossible or involves disproportionate effort.

Right to object

Art. 23. You have the right to object at any time to processing of personal data concerning you including processing for the purpose of profiling or direct marketing.

Your rights in case of personal data breach

Art. 24. (1) If the Controller detects personal data breach, which is likely to result in a high risk to your rights and freedoms, the University communicates the personal data breach to you without undue delay, as well as the measures taken or proposed to be taken.

(2) The Controller is not obliged to inform you if:

- the Controller has implemented appropriate technical and organizational protection measures, and those measures were applied to the personal data affected by the personal data breach;
- the Controller has taken subsequent measures which ensure that the high risk to your rights is no longer likely to materialize;
- it would involve disproportionate effort.

Persons, to whom your personal data is provided

Art. 25. For the described purposes of processing your personal data, the University is allowed to provide your personal data to third parties data processors, who comply with all requirements of legality and security when processing and storing your personal data.

Art. 26. The Controller does not transfer your personal data to third States or international organisations, unless there is a ground for that and after the data subject has been duly informed.
